IN MEMORY OF

MICHAEL RICHARD DUNCAN

COME CLIMB A RUNG

It is sometimes comforting to be alone with problems deep . . .
to escape cowardly into sleep . . .
or, in self-pity, simply weep . . .

It is far wiser to pick up the pieces, miserably tattered . . .
repair the heart lying shattered . . .
and evaluate what really mattered . . .

And then, - please, - come back to our world . . .
Sean Yeedell

Don't miss a chance to smile a smile,
Don't pass up any laughter,
And don't forget those anecdotes
You'll love to tell years after...
Look sideways as you walk along,
Look up and down and out--
For noticing life's trivia
Is what good fun's about...
You may be blinking back a tear,
'Cause sometimes things go wrong--
But if you learn to laugh through life--
You'll always get along!

. . . FOR JOBS WELL DONE

ROYAL RALLIES LIFT SPIRIT

During a pep rally, the Varsity Cheerleaders escort the football coaches as the fall Senior athletes look on.

The cheerleaders organize and cheer at pep rallies, raising spirit all year long.

Pep rallies helped spur this 1977 football team onto a fine 3-1-6 record.

Bob Boltz shovels down Chiquitas in the banana-eating contest at the bonfire before the "Battle of the Woods."

The Royal Pep Band, under the direction of Mr. Taylor, played at pep rallies and home basketball games.

Feature twirler, Carroll Wilcox, entertained audiences at half-time with her baton-twirling skill.

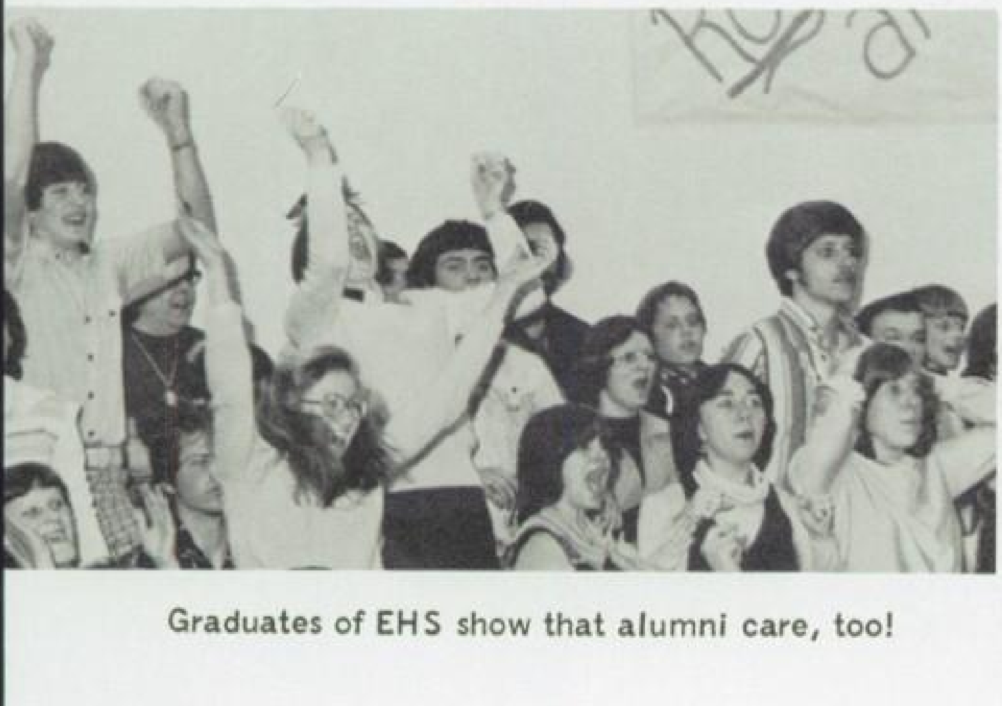

SPIRIT LEADS . . .

The boys' basketball team "GETS PSYCHED!"

Graduates of EHS show that alumni care, too!

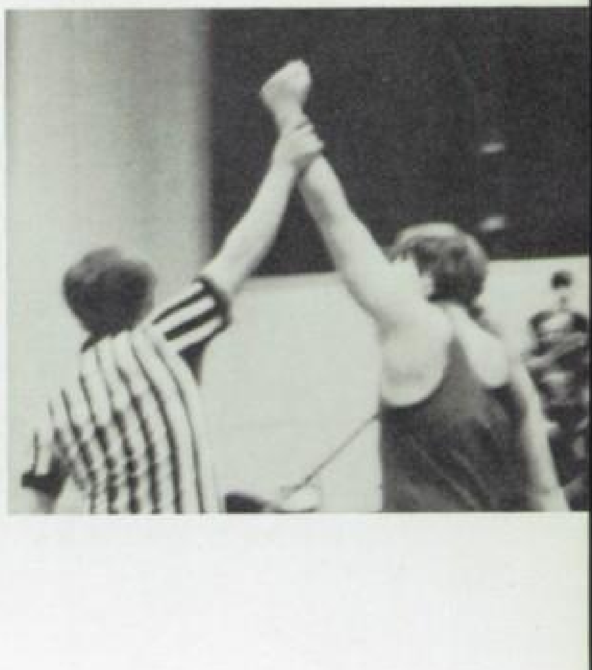

"ALRIGHT! We can do it!"

"Peace, man. Royals are COOL."

. . . TO VICTORY!

HOMECOMING

Queen Tammy Hoffman reigned over the 1977 football Homecoming. She was escorted by Chuck Bresler and Jeff Nonnemaker. Tammy was crowned by the 1976 Football Homecoming Queen Diane Lombard. Marlene Wagner, escorted by Jim Wolfe, was her Senior attendant. Junior attendant was Annette Leemaster. Annette was escorted by Mike Maltby. Susan Lewis, Sophomore attendant was escorted by Duane Abke. Freshman attendant Kelli Adkins was escorted by Pat Tyson.

Carrying the Queen's flowers and crown were twins Janet and Cheryl Miller, Wayne. Craig McGrain, Bloomdale and Nicky Torak, Bradner carried the football and scepter.

This year something different was added to the ceremony. Jeepsters from the Grand Rapids Jeepster Club led the Corvettes in which the girls rode in, honking and making strange noises all the way.

A dance sponsored by Student Council was held afterwards with music supplied by the Freedom band. Donuts and cider were served.

I knew the day you met me
I could love you if you let me
Though you touched my cheek
And said how easy you'd forget me,
You said,

Butterflies are free,
And so are we,

On that velvet morning,
When your love was forming,
I said it wouldn't hurt me
If you left without warning,
I said,

Butterflies are free,
And so are we,

And you made me understand
Right from the start,
I could hold your gentle hand,
But never hold your heart.

So why the crying?
Were our brave words lying,
When we both agreed
There'd be no tears in our goodbying?

Butterflies are free,
Why aren't we?
